The Tourism Development Department, Ministry of Primary Resources and Tourism invites proposals from interested parties to the above project.

The objective of this project is:

1. Generate greater awareness amongst both tourists and locals on the various tourism attractions along the Brunei river;
2. Complement existing commercial restaurants that are located within the same stretch which have already gained interest among international and local visitors;
3. Create a 'night life' in Bandar Seri Begawan especially along Jalan Residency as a vibrant destination with street art and culture along Kota Batu;
4. Promote local products and create business opportunities through collaboration and partnership as well as provide employment opportunities for the local community
5. Rejuvenate Brunei river with lively activities and entertaining attractions in order to build up a viable commercial hub along the Brunei river banks; and
6. Encourage participation of private sectors to have co-ownership of the tourism product
